"HANK AND HEIDI’S HILLBILLY HOEDOWN"

York Senior Center is excited to host its first Annual Fundraiser for our center. We are currently in the process of working with performers from California on this fun and exciting evening, which will feature a dinner and a live comedy show. Friday May 20th.

American Girl Tea Party  Ages 7-12

We would be honored if you would join us for our new spring afternoon tea event! The York Harbor Inn has, once again, graciously opened their Hillcroft Room for this special event and we hope that you and your doll will plan to join us. We’ll treat you both like princesses…serving you tea, finger sandwiches, pastries, petit fours and hot fudge sundaes. We’ll even teach you some tea etiquette. We are encouraging you to come dressed in something spring like, floral or maybe even wear a hat. You and your doll will have the opportunity to participate in some fun activities including some favorite crafts of a few of the American Girl Dolls. There will be tea party favors and wonderful memories, not to mention a delicious plateful of cookies to take home with you. Space is limited at the Inn—we encourage you to register early! This program is a drop-off and pick-up event.

Flag Football
Adults

New this spring we will be offering an opportunity for adults to get together on Sunday mornings for some friendly flag football competition. Players of any skill level are welcome to join. Our emphasis will be on fun, friendly competition. This will be a drop-in style format and teams will be determined daily. The Parks and Recreation Department will provide the flags, a lined field to play on, and one game official. So gather your friends, dust off your cleats and join us for some spring football. Sundays at Bog Rd. 9:00am.

Signs of Spring Bird Walk: Saturday, May 21st

Feel the warmth of the sun, smell emerging flowers, watch critters scurry, & listen to their calls. Join the CFW to learn about local wildlife including native birds and how to identify them in the wild. Test your new skills on a hike around the trails at Mount A searching for birds and signs of the season. Plus, take a quick tour of the Center’s baby bird room - a sure sign of spring! Program is open to all ages $7 suggested donation per person. For more info and to register, visit: www.yorkcenterforwildlife.org/news.htm

Come Learn about the Lawns to Lobsters Movement. Guest Speaker: Ryan Coite

Lawns to Lobsters Workshop – Tuesday May 3, 2016, 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm at the York Library
Come learn about the Lawns to Lobsters movement. Our Speaker, Ryan Coite, will inform you about the Lawns to Lobsters sustainable lawn care practices. These practices are designed to create a healthy good looking, low maintenance yard. Mr. Coite is the York Parks and Recreation Foreman. He is responsible for maintaining all the beautiful parks and open space in York, in a way that respects and benefits the environment. All attendees receive access to the printed materials showing proper yard care techniques, and a laminated “Good Bugs and Bad Bugs” card for New England.
Whether you hire someone to care for your lawn, or do your own yard care, these practices will minimize environmental impacts showing you how to care for your lawn with minimal use of pesticides and fertilizers. Good for the planet, good for your health, and the health of your pets and children. Come Join us.
